GAIN Capital's FOREX.com Adds Forex Trading on the MetaTrader 4 Platform
Forex Trading on the Popular Platform Now Available at www.FOREX.com/metatrader

BEDMINSTER, N.J., September 25, 2008 – GAIN Capital Group, a leading provider of foreign exchange (forex) services for individual and institutional investors, today announced that its FOREX.com division is now offering forex trading on the popular MetaTrader 4 platform. MetaTrader 4 users can sign up for trading services at www.forex.com/metatrader.

"Our goal is to provide the MetaTrader community with a level of service and stability that only an established, well-capitalized forex provider like GAIN can offer," said Glenn Stevens, GAIN's chief executive officer. "We believe that FOREX.com's commitment to providing competitive spreads, quality trade executions and excellent service will prove to be a compelling value proposition for anyone who relies on MetaTrader 4 for their forex trading."

FOREX.com, a division of GAIN Capital Group, is one of the largest regulated forex firms in the United States. GAIN and FOREX.com are registered with the National Futures Association (NFA) in the United States as a Futures Commission Merchant, Forex Dealer Member. As of July 31, 2008, the firm reported excess net capital of $57.9 million.

MetaTrader 4 is designed around the needs of technical forex traders, and includes support for automated trading. Among the notable features:

- A robust technical analysis package with the ability to create custom indicators
- The ability to program and automate specific trading strategies using a built-in language, MetaQuotes Language 4
- Support for hedging activities
- Audible rate & indicator alerts

Traders using the MetaTrader 4 can benefit from the advantages that FOREX.com provides to its customers, including:

- Dealing spreads as low as 1-2 pips on the most widely traded currencies
- Expert research and analysis, from real-time market commentary to essential daily and weekly reports
- Customer support via licensed representatives seven days a week, including 24-hours a day during market hours
- Advanced educational tools include online training courses, workshops, and interactive webinars

The availability of the MetaTrader 4 platform at FOREX.com complements the company's own proprietary trading technology, FOREXTrader. Awarded 2008 "Best Retail FX Platform" by the readers of Profit & Loss magazine, the FOREXTrader platform offers a highly customizable trading environment with a full suite of professional charting and order management tools.

MetaTrader 4 users can visit www.forex.com/metatrader for more information and to register for a free, 30-day practice account.
