Foreign Exchange Expert Recognized for Leadership and Entrepreneurial Spirit

BEDMINSTER, N.J. and NEW YORK, May 21 /PRNewswire/ -- Ernst & Young LLP has named Glenn Stevens, CEO of GAIN Capital, as a finalist for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year® 2009 Award in New Jersey.

The Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year awards program celebrates its 23rd anniversary this year. The program has expanded to recognize business leaders in over 135 cities in 50 countries throughout the world.

With more than 25 years of foreign exchange (forex) experience, Mr. Stevens was selected by an independent panel of judges for his proven leadership skills and solid track-record in financial services.

In 1999, Mr. Stevens joined GAIN Capital, a global provider of online forex trading services, as a founding partner and managing director. He has been instrumental in helping the company grow rapidly, with annual revenue growth of at least 55 percent for eight consecutive years, from 2001 through 2008. He assumed the CEO role in June 2007, and has continued to deliver consistent financial results while expanding the company in new strategic directions in a highly competitive industry. For the year ending December 31, 2008, the company's annual revenue grew by 62 percent, while EBITDA and net income increased by 92 percent and 100 percent, respectively.

"It's an honor to be recognized by the prestigious Entrepreneur of the Year program," said Mr. Stevens. "The past 10 years at GAIN have been among the most fulfilling of my professional life. I believe that maintaining GAIN's entrepreneurial culture as we mature into a larger, global company is vital to our continued success."

Under Mr. Stevens' leadership, the Bedminster-based company has grown to more than 350 employees worldwide. GAIN has an office in New York and recently opened an office in London to service customers in the U.K. and Europe. In March of 2009, GAIN announced its acquisition of Japanese retail FX firm, Fortune Capital Ltd.

The awards ceremony will take place on June 23 in Teaneck, N.J.
