SmrtGuard Signs OEM Agreement With International Reseller Organization

Private Label Version of SmrtGuard Pro to Be Offered to Wireless Carriers and Enterprise Customers Worldwide

PRINCETON, N.J., Sept. 14, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- SmrtGuard has signed an OEM agreement with an international reseller organization which will offer a customized, private label version of its SmrtGuard mobile security suite to its wireless carrier and enterprise customers.

The global contract is SmrtGuard's largest reseller agreement to date. SmrtGuard will initially host the solution for its new global partner who serves carriers in three continents with millions of subscribers. SmrtGuard already serves consumers and small businesses throughout the world and has existing wireless carrier agreements in Europe and Asia.

"The mobile security marketplace is beginning to follow the sales and market penetration patterns of desktop mobile security software," said Robert Kao, founder and chief technology officer, SmrtGuard. "This OEM agreement serves as additional validation of the strength and performance of the SmrtGuard mobile security technology and customizable white label platform for carriers and resellers."

SmrtGuard's SmrtGuard Pro Suite supports Android tablets, smartphones and laptops; iPhones and iPads; and BlackBerry phones and tablets. The application is available for free download and a 30-day trial period after which pricing starts at $2.49 per month or $17.99 for an entire year for one device.
