"Third quarter year-on-year revenue growth reflected strong performance in our established markets as well as the continued acceleration of our international expansion. Our strong net revenue and EBITDA performance also demonstrate GAIN's ability to effectively manage the business during periods of significant market volatility, as we experienced in the third quarter, and our solid EBITDA margin of 28.8% underscores the operating leverage inherent in our business model," commented Glenn Stevens. Chief Executive Officer.

"In the third quarter, we continued to successfully grow both our retail and institutional businesses, which posted significant year-on-year and sequential volume increases. In particular, our institutional platform, GAIN GTX, showed strong growth, with volume increasing to $260.0 billion, accounting for 36.7% of third quarter trading volume, compared to 12.2% in the third quarter of 2010. Our core retail operating metrics also progressed year-on-year, demonstrating the competitive strengths of our technology, products and service offerings, as well as the net benefit of the dbFX business we acquired from Deutsche Bank AG earlier this year," Mr. Stevens continued.

Recent Developments

- The Board of Directors has voted to initiate a quarterly dividend of $0.05 per share, to be paid on December 23, 2011 to shareholders of record as of December 10, 2011
- After approving a $10.0 million share repurchase plan in May 2011, the Company has purchased 0.85 million shares for a total of approximately $5.0 million to date
- The Company recently expanded its revolving credit facility from $20.0 million to $50.0 million

"We are continuously evaluating ways to optimize the allocation of our capital. The initiation of a quarterly dividend and stock repurchase program, while also maintaining a strong cash position and a $50.0 million revolving credit facility, demonstrates our ability to return value to shareholders without compromising the Company's ability to actively pursue M&A and other strategic opportunities," Mr. Stevens concluded.

(1) For periods prior to the closing of our initial public offering in December 2010, in accordance with FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging, we accounted for an embedded derivative liability attributable to the redemption feature of our previously outstanding preferred stock. This redemption feature and the associated embedded derivative liability was no longer required to be recognized following the conversion of all of our preferred stock into common stock in connection with our IPO.

(2)In connection with the completion of our IPO, our board of directors approved a 2.29-for-1 stock split of our common stock to be effective immediately prior to the completion of the IPO. The 2.29-for-1 stock split, after giving effect to the receipt by us of 407,692 shares of common stock from all of our pre-IPO common stockholders (on a pro-rata basis) in satisfaction of previously outstanding obligations owed by such stockholders to us, resulted in an effective stock split of 2.26-for-1. Accordingly, all references to share and per share data have been retroactively restated for the three months and nine months ended September 30, 2010 to reflect the effective 2.26-for-1 stock split.

* Reconciliations of Non-GAAP Financial Measures

Reconciliation of GAAP Net Income to Adjusted Net Income:

GAIN Capital's previously outstanding Convertible, Redeemable Preferred Stock Series A, Series B, Series C, Series D, and Series E contained a redemption feature which allowed the holders of our preferred stock at any time on or after March 31, 2011 to require us to repurchase such securities. We had determined that this redemption feature effectively provided such holders with an embedded option derivative meeting the definition of an "embedded derivative" pursuant to FASB ASC 815, Derivatives and Hedging. Consequently, the embedded derivative was required to be bifurcated and accounted for separately. This redemption feature and related accounting treatment was no longer required to be recognized following conversion of all of our outstanding preferred stock into common stock in connection with our IPO. Historically, in accordance with FASB ASC 815, we adjusted the carrying value of the embedded derivative to the fair value of our Company at each reporting date, based upon the Black-Scholes options pricing model, and reported the preferred stock embedded derivative liability on the Condensed Consolidated Balance Sheet, with changes in fair value recorded in our Consolidated Statements of Operations. Historically, this impacted our net income, but did not affect our cash flow generation or operating performance. The embedded derivative caused our earnings to fluctuate, but in our view was not indicative of our historical or expected future operating performance.

Adjusted net income is a non-GAAP financial measure and represents our net income/(loss) excluding (i) the change in fair value of the embedded derivative in our preferred stock, for periods prior to 2011, and (ii) the after-tax impact of amortization of purchased intangibles. As noted above, the embedded derivative in our preferred stock was extinguished at the time of our IPO. Accordingly, beginning in 2011, we no longer include an adjustment for changes in fair value of the embedded derivative and adjusted net income will represent our net income excluding only the after-tax impact of amortization of purchased intangibles. This non-GAAP financial measure has certain limitations, including that it does not have a standardized meaning and, therefore, our definition may be different from similar non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies and/or analysts. Thus, it may be more difficult to compare our financial performance to that of other companies.

Reconciliation of GAAP Net Income to EBITDA/Adjusted EBITDA:

Adjusted EBITDA is a non-GAAP financial measure that prior to the closing of our IPO in December 2010 represented our earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and excluded the change in fair value of the embedded derivative in our preferred stock. With the consummation of our IPO, all outstanding shares of our preferred stock converted into common stock. Accordingly, in 2011 we no longer adjust EBITDA for the embedded derivative.

Adjusted EBITDA margin is adjusted EBITDA over revenue excluding interest on our note payable. As noted above, in connection with our IPO, the embedded derivative in our preferred stock was eliminated and in 2011, we no longer make any adjustments to EBITDA.
