

Document Manager Magazine Awards Product of the Year to Xerox DocuMate 4799 Scanner

Readers' voting honors Xerox and two technology partners

LONDON and PLEASANTON, Calif., Nov. 4, 2015 -- Document Manager Magazine, Europe's leading trade publication on imaging technology, has awarded its 2015 Product of the Year Award to the Xerox DocuMate® 4799 scanner at the annual DM Awards ceremony held in London.

Also receiving a top DM Award was software developer Office Gemini, winning 'Workgroup Imaging Product of the Year' for its Dokmee data capture software, which is bundled with the DocuMate 4799. Additionally, DTS Service, the international service partner for Xerox DocuMate scanners, was named 'Service and Support Company of the Year' by the magazine.

"The awards, determined by the votes of magazine readers, have been gaining strength year after year, and we are delighted to see so many worthy winners this year," said David Tyler, the magazine's editor.

"The awards make the DocuMate 4799 a triple award-winning product," said Erik Banis, managing director for Visioneer® EMEA. "Our solutions are designed to provide the very best overall package – the best hardware, best software and best support – and it's great to see customers confirming this by voting for us."

The Xerox DocuMate 4799 is the flagship product of the Xerox DocuMate product line, and its versatility, high speed and superior reliability make it a popular scanner for demanding office environments. The DocuMate 4799's leap forward in innovation is enhanced by Dokmee Capture integration, which adds service bureau capabilities, such as numerous index fields, Q&A and advanced compression, without levying per-page scanning charges or licensing fees.

"On behalf of our colleagues at Visioneer, who make the Xerox DocuMate scanner line, we would like to acknowledge the awards to DTS Service and Office Gemini, two pivotal technology partners in delivering world-class solutions to our customers," Banis said. "Our award comes after winning Company of the Year last year, so clearly we're making a great impression on customers."
