

Leclanché announces delay in the publication of its 2022 interim results

Considering the carve-out which took place at the beginning of the year, as well as the delayed publication of the 2021 annual results, the Company's request to publish the 2022 interim results by the 30th of November 2022 has been accepted by SIX Exchange Regulation AG, the exchange regulator.

YVERDON-LES-BAINS, Switzerland, 29th September 2022 – Leclanché SA (SIX: LECN), one of the world's leading energy storage companies, announces a delay in the publication of its 2022 semi-annual results.

Publication of 2022 Semi Annual Accounts by 30th November 2022

The Company has requested an extension of the deadline for releasing its 2022 semi-annual report due to various internal changes within the Company's finance team in the last six months, coupled with the implementation of the carve-out of its eTransport business into a wholly-owned Swiss entity, Leclanché E-Mobility SA and an upgrade of the Company's ERP.

Further to its decision on the 28th of September 2022, SIX Exchange Regulation AG approved a deadline extension for Leclanché 2022 semi-annual report to the 30th of November 2022. SIX Exchange Regulation AG has requested Leclanché to include the below excerpt in this press release:
